Suglia and Smith join Salem Five Bank as vice presidents

October 11, 2012 - Financial Digest

According to Salem Five Bank president and CEO Joseph Gibbons, Bill Suglia has been appointed to the position of senior vice president and commercial real estate loan officer.

Prior to joining Salem Five, Suglia worked as a senior vice president and division executive of commercial real estate at Citizens Bank responsible for managing the northern New England market including New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont.

Also, Allison Smith has been appointed to the position of vice president and senior portfolio manager in the commercial real estate division.

Smith was formerly a senior vice president in the commercial real estate division at Citizens Bank. Prior to this role she served as the vice president of credit review.

Smith holds a bachelor of science degree in education from St. Lawrence University. She has served on the boards of several charitable foundations in New Hampshire and is actively involved in civic organizations in Bedford, NH, where she currently resides.
