Baybutt Construction awarded 6,500 s/f project

November 01, 2012 - Northern New England

The Town of Antrim has selected Baybutt Construction to manage the design and construction of the new 6,500 s/f police department.

The new department will include full site development and feature state of the art electronics, evidence, armory, booking, interview room, general purpose room and a sally port.

Baybutt has been selected to oversee the entire design, preconstruction and construction phase of the project. The project is expected to start in the spring of 2013 and be completed for occupancy in 2014.

Baybutt Construction Corp., a family owned business, has been a construction manager, general contractor, and design/builder in New England since 1964. Baybutt has evolved into a leading commercial construction company committed to collaborating, as part of a team, to meet client needs.
