Prudential Verani Realty and Real Living | The Norwood Group merge

December 06, 2012 - Northern New England

Margherita Verani, Giovanni Verani, and Karl Norwood have merged their companies which are two of the oldest and best known real estate companies in N.H. "The merger between us is a natural progression we welcome with open arms," said Margherita Verani, president of Prudential Verani Realty.

Throughout the years both companies have cooperated and competed in delivering exceptional customer service to their clients. Earlier this year, Prudential Real Estate & Relocation was acquired by Brookfield Residential Property Services from Prudential Financial Inc. With The Norwood Group already under the Brookfield umbrella, this natural expansion seemed to be the perfect fit for both Verani Realty and The Norwood Group who will continue on under the banner of Prudential Verani Realty.

"The Verani team and our group have always had mutual respect for each other over the years," said Karl Norwood, president of Real Living | The Norwood Group. "With Brookfield's purchase of Prudential, our two companies were already aligned. With the same corporate ownership, it made sense to continue that partnership at the state level."
