Roedel Companies donates $7,500 to Big Brother Big Sister of Greater Nashua

December 20, 2012 - Front Section

Hotel owner/operators Roedel Companies continued its tradition of supporting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Nashua by donating $7,500 to the organization on December 5th at the grand opening of their new Holiday Inn Express & Suites. Funds were generated through Roedel's 3rd Annual Bowl For Kid's Sake at Merrimack Ten Pin in June. Thirty employees participated and raised over $3,600 for Big Brothers Big Sisters. Roedel complemented their employees' efforts with an additional donation of $3,900.

Since its inception in 2009, Bowl For Kid's Sake has generated $20,000 for Big Brothers Big Sisters.

Martin LeGay, Operations Manager at RGH Hospitality is a current board member of Big Brothers Big Sisters. Partner of Roedel, David Roedel is a past board member and served for 6 years.
