HK Group leases 1,875 s/f to Galerie ISL Paris

December 20, 2012 - Connecticut

According to HK Group of Westport, Johannes and Caroline Bahadourian of Galerie ISL Paris have signed a lease for 1,875 s/f of retail space at 5 Post Road West.

The space is direct waterfront facing the Saugatuck River, with high visibility, next to one of the busiest intersections downtown.

Johannes and Caroline are established international antiques dealers, their family having established their antique business at Louvre des Antiquaries in 1978 and in 1995 at Isle Saint Louis in Paris. Johannes Bahadourian provides quality services and unique pieces that are the results of generations of knowledge, expertise, personal attention, integrity and education.

ISL Galerie Paris specializes in the sale and purchase of European collectible antiques dating from the 16th century to the mid-20th century, with an assortment of unique pieces that is always changing.

Franco Fellah, executive vice president of HK Group, Westport was the real estate broker that finalized the lease transaction for the ISL Gallery space.
