

nererj

James Grasseschi, 48, of Grasseschi Plumbing

January 17, 2013 - Construction Design & Engineering

James Grasseschi, 48 passed away Wednesday, January 9, 2013 in Heywood Hospital.

Jim was born in Worcester his father was the late John Grasseschi. He graduated from Holy Name High School and earned his degree in electrical engineering from Worcester Polytechnic Institute. He met and married the love of his life and best friend for the next 24 years, Michell (Giguere) Grasseschi. Together they moved to Oxford for 10 years to raise their three children. In 2000, Jim and Michell, bought a piece of land and farm in the countryside of Hubbardston where they have lived for the past 12 years.

After graduation from WPI, Jim entered the family business; Grasseschi Plumbing and Heating when his father became ill assuming the role of President, guiding, directing and nurturing it to where it stands now.

He is survived by his wife, three children, Brittany, Nicholas and Amanda Grasseschi; his mother Diane (Prince) Grasseschi of Worcester; three sisters, Maria Desy of Millbury, Gina Correiro and Lisa Grasseschi both of Worcester; aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, extended family and numerous friends.

Jim was active in many organizations and associations throughout the years including, the MCA, Merit Construction Alliance as a member and board of director, ABC; Associated Builders and Contractors; Skills USA; PHCCMA Plumbing, Heating, and Cooling Contractors of Mass.; CMEA Central Mass Employees Association; ASM Associated Subcontractors of Mass., the Better Business Bureau and the Grafton Hill Business Association.

He and Michell were members of Mount Pleasant Country Club and he enthusiastically loved Golf. When not working or home with family Jim could be found on the Club Golf Course playing or enjoying social functions. He also loved to play the piano, exercise and compete. He would run religiously and at onetime participated in the Boston Marathon, and the Pan Mass Bicycle Challenge.

In lieu of flowers memorial remembrances may be made to: Lou Gehrigs disease, ALS Foundation, Mass. Chapter, 315 Norwood Park South, 1st Floor, Norwood, MA 02062 or The Williams Syndrome Association, 570 Kirks Boulevard, Ste, 223, Troy, MI 48084-4156.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540