Fulcrum Assoc. breaks ground on $1.25 million Triangle Credit Union

March 06, 2008 - Northern New England

Members of Triangle Credit Union, representatives from Team Design Inc. and Fulcrum Associates recently gathered for the ground breaking of Triangle's new $1.25 million branch located off I-93 North, exit 6, at 1030 Candia Rd.

Maurice Simard Jr., president/CEO of Triangle Credit Union was joined by George Adamaitis, chairman, Triangle Credit Union board of directors; James Delisle VP/general manager and Nery Bordas, project manager from the architectural firm of Team Design; and Jeff Luter, construction manager, Fulcrum.

This will be Triangle's fourth location in Manchester.

The 4,500 s/f branch is expected to open in early summer of this year. A key feature of the branch will be the added access of four drive-up lanes. The new facility is located near the East Industrial Park Dr.
