Boehning joins Linear Retail as senior vice president of asset management

February 21, 2013 - Retail

Linear Retail Properties, LLC, has hired Jeffrey Boehning as senior vice president of asset management. Boehning will be responsible for overseeing all of Linear Retail's asset management and construction activities.

Bill Beckeman, president and CEO of Linear Retail said, "Jeff brings many talents to our team that will allow us to continue our steady portfolio growth in the coming months and years."

Prior to joining Linear Retail, Boehning served as senior vice president for LaSalle Investment Management in Chicago with responsibilities including asset management, leasing, development and dispositions with particular focus on retail and industrial assets.

Boehning holds an M.B.A. in Real Estate Finance from DePaul University and a B.S. in Business Administration from Elon University.
