Broadway Ptrs. hires DTZ FHO Partners' Asset Advisory Group

March 06, 2008 - Front Section

DTZ FHO Partners' Asset Advisory Group has been hired by Broadway Partners as exclusive leasing agent for 970,000 s/f Bay Colony Corporate Center.

Bay Colony is regarded as one of the premier office parks in suburban Boston. The four-building complex sits on a 58-acre hilltop site overlooking the Cambridge Reservoir and Rte. 128.

"Bay Colony is the preeminent suburban office park, offering spectacular views and a beautiful campus setting with a full complement of amenities. Its central location in Waltham is at the heart of Rte. 128's technology cluster," said Duncan Gratton, partner, DTZ FHO. "We are honored to have been selected for this prestigious assignment, and we look forward to working with the Broadway team."

Greg Green, managing director, national director of leasing for Broadway Partners said, "DTZ FHO Partners has the experience and expertise to lease a project of this quality and complexity. We look forward to their implementation of a marketing program that effectively conveys the benefits that Bay Colony has to offer."

The DTZ FHO Partners team assigned to the Bay Colony project includes Gratton and Richard Fahey, both partners, along with Kim Roop, vice president.
