What year did you discover the New England Real Estate Journal and what business were you doing at that time? 1980, the year our family started our commercial/industrial real estate brokerage business.

In what way has the New England Real Estate Journal been a benefit to you and your business? The New England Real Estate Journal has given us continuous and excellent exposure to clients, customers, other brokers, and other contacts in the commercial/industrial real estate business. It has also been a reliable source of information for property sales and leases and other information and happenings pertinent to our commercial/industrial brokerage business.

How long have you been affiliated with the commercial real estate industry? 1967, the year our family purchased its first retail investment property in Woburn Center.
