How long have you been affiliated with the commercial real estate industry? I have been practicing real estate law since the late sixties, after graduating from Harvard College in the class of 1961 and from Harvard Law School in 1966. After being a partner and a member of the managing committee of the law firm now known as Rubin and Rudman, I went on my own. I now practice real estate law with my younger daughter, attorney Henrietta Feldman, in the law firm of Feldman & Feldman, P.C. We practice commercial real estate law with an emphasis on condominium law, commercial leasing, property tax appeals and affordable housing. I have been the law columnist for the NEREJ since the mid-seventies.
