In what way has the New England Real Estate Journal been a benefit to you and your business? The NEREJ and the people who work there have absolutely made my career. I say that because the visibility and exposure to all of their subscribers have continued to make my phone ring. Everywhere I go, people say "Oh, I see you in the Journal." Further, the special section and guests, authors and practitioners, continue to feed my brain and allow me to do a much better job with my customers and clients. I'm still a person who likes to hold a newspaper in my hand hence; I'm always running to the mailbox when I know it's time for another edition.
