EnviroVantage hires Cooper as director of marketing and business development

April 04, 2013 - Owners Developers & Managers

EnviroVantage, a fully licensed, full service commercial and residential environmental and specialty services contractor, has hired Carlton Cooper in the newly formed position of director of marketing and business development.

Cooper brings to EnviroVantage 18 years' experience in the building and construction industry having served most recently as a lead team member at Merrimack Building Supply and Robert N. Karpp company as well as field manager at Georgia Pacific LLC.

Cooper is a member of the Associated Builders and Contractors of NH/VT and well as the ABC's Young Professional Group.

"The addition of Carlton is a clear indication that we are growing and expanding as a company. To have someone the quality of Carlton want to join our team reflects positively on our ability to provide a quality product and service to our clients" said Scott Knightly, president of EnviroVantage. "We are thrilled that he has joined our team."
