Messier of RPL receives Hall of Fame Award at Leading Real Estate Companies of the World Annual Conference in Las Vegas

April 11, 2013 - Rhode Island

Residential Properties Ltd. (RPL) vice president of relocation services, Elizabeth Messier was a recipient of the Hall of Fame Award at this year's Leading Real Estate Companies of the World Annual Conference, held at The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas.

"It's an incredible honor," said Messier, who is now just one of four relocation directors to ever garner the award. "I had no idea and was not expecting it at all."

The award was established to recognize individuals for outstanding contributions throughout their career, such as committee and board involvement, presentations at network conferences, and service in various network capacities.

"I was surprised and delighted that my contributions to the network and its members were recognized," said Messier.

In addition to winning the Hall of Fame Award, Messier was also a featured speaker at the conference, joining a list of high profile presenters.

Messier led a discussion regarding the "Military on the Move" program, which provides special benefits for active and retired members of the military and their families. Residential Properties is currently the only Rhode Island real estate company participating in the program.
