O'Neill joins Amenta/Emma Architects, PC

April 18, 2013 - Connecticut

Amenta/Emma Architects, PC, welcomes Steffany O'Neill as project manager. O'Neill began her career at Perkins Eastman where she served as job captain to a team of six.

In 2010, O'Neill chose to gain a different perspective on the industry and joined Reckson, a Division of SL Green Realty. Working in the architecture department of one of the largest real estate owners in Fairfield and Westchester counties, she handled the suburban portfolio of 20 buildings and 5.5 million s/f of class A office space. Projects included tenant office development, capital improvement, acquisitions and building repositions.
