Regan joins Robert Paul Properties as senior associates at the Falmouth office

May 09, 2013 - Front Section

Debbie Regan, a well-regarded Realtor and successful rental agent, recently joined Robert Paul Properties as a senior associate. Former co-owner of Regan Realtors, Regan has a solid reputation for marketing, selling, and renting homes across the upper Cape villages. With 30 years of experience she has a true commitment to both services for her clients.

"Debbie's involvement in her community, her professionalism, and the attention she gives each client speak to her success in our business," said Paul Grover, co-owner. "Her understanding of the local market and unending enthusiasm will make her a true asset to Robert Paul."

Originally from Waltham, Regan has been on Cape Cod for decades, raising her family, and building a successful career. A licensed practical nurse since 1979, Regan is a natural caregiver which translates into the great individual consideration and service she provides. Whether you are looking to market a home for sale, or interested in purchasing a home,

Owned by Robert Kinlin and Paul Grover, and representing the finest waterfront and village homes for sale across Cape Cod and the South Coast, Robert Paul Properties offers unsurpassed professionalism, hyper-local knowledge of the towns and inventory, and a tradition of excellence.
