O'Brien Commercial represents the building owner, Aspect Realty, while the tenant was represented by The Ezra Company.

The landlord, Concord Littleton Properties was represented by O'Brien Commercial, and they also procured the tenant. Weymouth Enterprises chose the building because of its unique industrial characteristics, affordability and recent installation of fiber tele-communications by the town.

Also, Spindle Mattress, LLC has leased 4,800 s/f of space at 12-A Craig Road in Acton, Mass. from landlord O'Brien Investment Management. Spindle expects to begin operating at this location this month. They will be producing and distributing mattresses sold via the internet.
