Amenta/Emma selected for SAS Institute's regional office improvements project

June 20, 2013 - Connecticut

Amenta/Emma has been commissioned by SAS Institute to provide Architectural and MEP improvements for their regional office in NYC. Capitalizing on commanding views from their 47th floor skyscraper location, design improvements will focus primarily on elevator lobby, reception area, executive briefing room, conference suites, breakout area, training rooms and other customer orientated spaces.

SAS is one of the world's largest private software companies with more than 13,000 employees across more than 400 SAS offices worldwide.

Amenta/Emma, with offices in Connecticut and Mass. deliver architectural and planning design solutions for progressive companies and institutions.
