Johnson Brunetti opens new office in New Haven

August 15, 2013 - Connecticut

Johnson Brunetti, Retirement and Investment Specialists, have opened their new office in New Haven. As of July 1st, this location will be open for clients to meet with Johnson Brunetti's financial advisors. The new location, located at 681 State St., will provide meeting spaces for associates and clients, as well as office space.

"We are pleased to have found such a great location to accommodate our present and future growth in New Haven," said Joel Johnson, certified financial planner and managing partner of Johnson Brunetti. "We are looking forward to expanding our team and services to all of Connecticut."

The new presence comes in response to the proven demand for Johnson Brunetti's services in southern Connecticut. They currently have locations in Cheshire, Simsbury and Wethersfield.
