Miller of Levey Miller Maretz receives award

August 15, 2013 - Connecticut

Steve Miller, owner of Levey Miller Maretz Commercial Real Estate Services, Connecticut, received the President's Award from the Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven in recognition of his service to the community as president of the Jewish Community Center (JCC), a member of the Jewish Federation's executive committee and for efforts to make the JCC a home for the entire community.

Miller has served as president of the JCC for the past two years, during which he worked to infuse his board with new and talented members of the community, increase program and service excellence, and support new initiatives.
