The Kane Company sells 3,053 s/f at 121 Congress Street in Portsmouth; Buyers represented by LeClaire of Costantino Real Estate

August 22, 2013 - Retail

The former Portsmouth Baking Company, a 3,053 s/f commercial condominium located at 121 Congress St. in downtown, has been sold, according to listing broker Jody Skaff of The Kane Company. The buyers, represented by Michael LeClaire of Costantino Real Estate LLC, plan to utilize the property for an Asian fusion restaurant.

The property, which had been renovated in 2011, generated a great deal of interest during the term of the listing. This was one of the premiere retail properties available for sale in the market. Sellers Harvey Hosack and Ed Connolly have relocated out of the area.
