Brady Sullivan and Starr Development hold ribbon cutting of renovation project at 624 Washington Street - The Lofts at Anthony Mill

September 12, 2013 - Rhode Island

Coventry town manager, Thomas Hoover, alongside town council president, Gary Cote, will cut the ribbon at the grand opening of the latest renovation project of Brady Sullivan Properties and Starr Development at 624 Washington St., last month.

Continuing their history of award-winning mill renovations in New England, Brady Sullivan Props. and Starr Development have re-introduced the 624 Washington St. mill as "The Lofts at Anthony Mill" after a lengthy and detailed renovation effort.

The real estate developers, working in conjunction with the planning department and the R.I. Historic Preservation & Heritage Commission, were careful to retain many original interior and exterior elements such as the large over-sized windows, heavy timber framing, wood plank flooring and exposed brick and beams, while adding modern finishes such as granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, designer carpet selections, in-unit washer/dryers, and central air, as well as an onsite fitness center, theatre room, community gathering room and roof top deck overlooking the Anthony Dam.

"We are so happy to be bringing new life to yet another one of Rhode Island's treasured mill properties," said Brady Sullivan owner/partner, Arthur Sullivan.

The Lofts at Anthony Mill are within the Anthony Village Historic District and is one of 247 significant structures in the U.S. Park Service National Register of Historic Places.

Brady Sullivan purchased the property in January 2012. The prior owner was Anthony Mills Partners, LLC.
