Record attendance at the 2013 REFA-CT gala held September 12

September 19, 2013 - Connecticut

The 2013 Real Estate Finance Association Gala was held on September 12, at the Great River Golf Club. Over 170 members and guests attended this event which consisted of networking, hors d'oeuvres and a live presentation by comedian Alonzo Bodden who was making a return performance at the REFA Gala.

The REFA Golf Outing, held on June 25th, donated the proceeds to two local charities: Habitat for Humanity of Coastal Fairfield County and Hartford Area Habitat for Humanity. A thank you note from both of these charities has been received, stating that with REFA's donation they were able to help build safe, decent homes for families in the communities they service.
