Fort Point Project Management hires Kotecka as project manager

October 31, 2013 - Owners Developers & Managers

Fort Point Project Management (Fort Point PM) has hired Zofia Kotecka as project manager.

In this role, Kotecka will lead renovation and relocation projects for companies in the high tech, life sciences and corporate sectors. Her proven successes with clients like Liberty Mutual and Analysis Group guarantee seamless transitions for employees moving to new work space.

"Zofia's work ethic and customer centric approach are invaluable to our clients and a great fit with our team," said Christine Mosholder, partner and founder of Fort Point PM.

Prior to joining Fort Point PM, Kotecka managed properties at ZespÅ³ Zarz dcÅ³w Nieruchomo ci in Pozna, Poland where she facilitated contractor bids, developed budget plans and drafted contracts. She holds a bachelors of science in Facilities Planning and Management from Wentworth Institute of Technology and spends her free time volunteering for various charities while staying active in the Polish community.

Fort Point PM is a leading provider of project management and relocation management services for lab, academic and corporate projects. Experienced project managers with engineering, facilities management and architectural expertise guarantee successful transitions to new locations. As an owner's representative, Fort Point PM will coordinate the design, engineering, IT, construction, furniture procurement and ultimately the relocation of your business to a new site.
