

CELEBRATING
65 YEARS

nerej

SIOR names Porta 2013 Robert W. Holmes Scholarship recipient

November 07, 2013 - Front Section

The New England SIOR Chapter named Joseph Porta, partner at CBRE | The Boulos Company in Portland, ME, as the 2013 Robert W. Holmes SIOR Scholarship Recipient. The 14th Annual Scholarship Night was held on October 3rd, at The Algonquin Club. Porta was joined by several other SIOR members, including Jim Boudrot, executive vice president of NAI Hunneman Commercial; Garry Holmes, president of R.W. Holmes Realty Co. and Angela West, president of SIOR and vice president of CBRE | Oklahoma.

Porta joined CBRE | The Boulos Company in 2009 as a commercial real estate broker and specializes in investment transactions with value-add components and tenant representation. By establishing relationships with local businesses and property owners, Porta has developed a strong network of national and regional corporations operating in the North East. In 2011, Porta was named CBRE | The Boulos Company's Broker of the Year and was made a partner of the company in 2012. Commenting on the award, Porta expressed his gratitude for the opportunities offered by the scholarship. "I am honored to be this year's Robert W. Holmes Scholarship Recipient," Porta said. "My affiliation with SIOR has allowed me to learn from and interact with the best brokers in the business, and it continues to help me serve my clients as I continue to grow as a real estate professional."

The Robert W. Holmes SIOR Scholarship was named after Bob Holmes, long-time SIOR member, past SIOR chapter president and founder of the R.W. Holmes Realty in Natick, Mass. The scholarship is available by application only to an SIOR candidate that best exemplifies a commitment to the SIOR organization and has a consistent record of stellar professionalism as an office/industrial broker in the market.

Prior to CBRE, Porta worked as a broker at Ingalls Commercial Brokerage, where he gained initial experience in tenant representation work in the office market, investment sales, and leasing experience in the retail and industrial markets. Additionally, Porta graduated from Assumption College with a bachelor of science in Finance, Management and Italian.

"Joseph Porta's rapid success as a commercial real estate broker and his extensive network of industry relations were strong factors in his candidacy for the 2013 scholarship," said Boudrot. "He has quickly demonstrated leadership throughout his professional development, and we are pleased to be able to offer him this opportunity through SIOR."

The Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR) is the leading professional commercial and industrial real estate association. SIOR has more than 3,000 members in more than 630 cities around the world, and the association represents today's most knowledgeable, experienced, and successful commercial real estate brokerage specialists. The SIOR value proposition has remained indelibly consistent, spanning generations, commercial real estate markets across the globe, and companies both large and small. SIOR maintains and promotes a professional designation of the highest quality for the benefit of its members and their clients. The designation stands unchallenged for excellence in the performance of real estate services, and is universally recognized as the prerequisite in the selection of a commercial real estate broker, agent, or consultant.

New England Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540