Fusion Design Consultants completes main lobby renovations for 675 Massachusetts Avenue

November 14, 2013 - Construction Design & Engineering

Fusion Design Consultants, LLC completed main lobby renovations at 675 Mass. Ave. Fusion provided interior architectural services for the project.

Owned by Intercontinental Real Estate and represented by Jones Lang LaSalle, 675 Mass. Ave. features new design, quality finishes, and views of the Charles River, Harvard University, MIT and Boston. The cohesive design elements, light and graphics transform the lobby's street presence. A backlit 3-form column in green and a custom digital wall graphic become strong focal points. Walnut veneer ceiling baffles and an accent wall behind the stone reception/security desk incorporate a natural element, establishing a warm atmosphere in the midst of a contemporary scheme.
