According to Cassidy Turley, Donna Kirven has received the 2013 Cassidy Turley MOJO Award for her services as the director of first impressions/receptionist at the Cassidy Turley Boston office. The award was presented to Kirven at the Cassidy Turley National Leadership Conference in Colorado Springs. It recognizes an individual who is selfless and committed to making Cassidy Turley an exceptional, client-focused organization. Kirven has been with Cassidy Turley Boston for more than 25 years and has gained the confidence and trust of all employees and clients by serving as a brand ambassador and devoted member of the team.

"I was very excited to be recognized for this award," Kirven said. "I love having the opportunity to build lasting relationships with our Cassidy Turley clients and colleagues, some who I have known for over 25 years."

As the first person people see when they walk into the Cassidy Turley Boston office, Kirven is a well-known fixture in the commercial real estate industry.
