Cassidy Turley leases 2,799 s/f to Conquest Capital at One Adams Place

January 02, 2014 - Front Section

Cassidy Turley has leased 2,799 s/f to Conquest Capital Partners at One Adams Place for a lease term of five years.

Senior managing director, principal Sean Teague and associate Kate McGovern of Cassidy Turley represented the landlord, CommonWealth REIT while Rob Byrne of Transwestern RBJ represented Conquest Capital Partners in this transaction. One Adams Place is managed by Reit Management & Research LLC, Real Estate Services.

Constructed in 1986 and renovated in 2004, One Adams Place is a five story 124,777 s/f class A office building. The building's exterior is attractive polished granite and its large floor plates are designed for functionality and flexibility. The floor plates are 25,000 s/f with Walker Duct Systems built into the floors. These features make the building ideal for both a corporate headquarters and back office use.

Amenities within Adams Place include a full service cafeteria, daycare center, onsite property management and jogging trails in the adjacent Blue Hills Reservation. Hyatt Place and the Boston Marriott Quincy Hotel are located minutes away. Both are full service hotels offering conference and dining facilities. The South Shore Plaza is a half mile away with over 180 retail shops and restaurants and downtown Boston is located less than 10 miles to the north.

CommonWealth REIT (CWH) is a real estate investment trust, or REIT, which primarily owns office and industrial properties located throughout the United States. As of September 30th, 2013, CWH owned $6.8 billion of office and industrial properties with approximately 52 million s/f located in 31 states, Washington, D.C. and Australia. CWH is headquartered in Newton, Massachusetts. Reit Management & Research LLC, Real Estate Services, also headquartered in Newton, Mass., manages more than 98 million s/f of commercial office, industrial, and medical office buildings across the country.
