Hogan joins The Omni Group as director of business development

March 13, 2014 - Rhode Island

According to The Omni Group, Mick Hogan has joined the company as director of business development.

In his role, Hogan is responsible for the coordinated marketing and lease-up of available space across the company portfolio and spearheading acquisitions in-line with the company's objectives.

As a former broker at Hayes & Sherry and director of business development at Peregrine Group, Hogan brings to the position an extensive background in commercial real estate brokerage and project management.
