Peregrine Group completes 25,000 s/f Swipely project in Providence

March 13, 2014 - Rhode Island

Peregrine Group LLC, based in Rumford, R.I., provided project management services for the renovation and delivery of Swipely's new 25,000 s/f headquarters.

Located at 10 Dorrance St., Peregrine's responsibilities for the project include design consulting, construction oversight, schedule coordination, furniture and equipment delivery, budget monitoring and final delivery of the space for occupancy. The project was completed at the beginning of Feb.

Swipely is a simple way for merchants to understand customers and grow sales. With information from in-store systems and the social web, Swipely makes it easy to understand what brings customers back. Merchants use Swipely to manage over 1 billion dollars in sales and deepen relationships with 7 million customers. Founded by Angus Davis and named to the Forbes Magazine 100 list of "America's Most Promising Companies," the Providence, R.I.-based company includes veterans of Tellme, Microsoft, LivingSocial and SeamlessWeb, and is backed by leading Silicon Valley investors including First Round Capital, Index Ventures, Shasta Ventures, and Greylock Partners, among others.

Peregrine Group LLC provides third party development management, project management, lender workouts, and tenant representation services on behalf of property owners, investors, and businesses seeking to achieve specific facility, investment and operating objectives. Clients have included national and regional banks, publicly traded companies, educational institutions, and high net worth individuals.
