It's All Here on the South Shore!

April 24, 2014 - Spotlights

The South Shore/Canal Regional Economic Development District (REDO) will be hosting its Annual Economic Development Bus Tour to highlight the advantages, opportunities and developments in the South Shore/Canal region. This half day bus tour on June 19 is a must attend for any real estate developers & professionals, sole proprietors, entrepreneurs, representatives from the banking industry, and other potential investors. From Marshfield to Bourne our development routes will bring you through the latest in village center developments as well as the highlight the vast growth and development that the South Shore has championed. This tour will highlight projects currently being developed and the latest status on all regional development projects. The region is flourishing and focusing on business attraction, retention and expansion and this tour is a great opportunity to learn more; coupled by some great networking too!

With the increasing logistic advantage provided by its close proximity to a number of local freeways the towns residing along the South Shore and Canal offer a multitude of location options including industrial properties, retail and commercial storefronts, professional office space, hotels, healthcare facilities and nearby higher education. Join us to see the various stages of these developments that are creating hundreds of local jobs and investing in hundreds of millions of dollars in our local communities.

The South Shore/Canal Economic Development Bus Tour will be held on June 19 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.; tickets are $30 which includes light breakfast & lunch as well as a property briefing handout for each attendee. To purchase tickets visit www.plymouthchamber.com. Sponsorship opportunities are now available; please contact the Plymouth Area Chamber for more information at 508-830-1620. We hope you can join us for this great morning of real estate development activities.
