Procino of Shawmut Design and Construction promoted to project executive and manager of CT office

May 08, 2014 - Front Section

Shawmut Design and Construction has promoted Ken Procino to project executive and manager of Shawmut's CT office. In this role, he will provide executive level management of Shawmut's construction project operations. He will also serve as manager and direct the leadership team in the North Haven office, one of Shawmut's seven offices nationwide. Procino previously held senior level project management responsibilities at Shawmut, primarily for major college and university work.

In this new role, Procino will be leading preconstruction services and overseeing multiple project teams in the construction of educational, library, commercial, retail, garage, residential, corporate, historic, hospital and healthcare, cleanroom, and assisted and skilled nursing facilities, as well as city and state funded projects.

Procino graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a B.S. in Structural Design and Construction Engineering Technology. He also holds a B.S. in Construction Management. Additionally, Procino is a LEED and OSHA certified professional, and an ASHE Certified Health Constructor.

Shawmut Design and Construction is a leading construction manager currently engaged in $860 million in projects nationwide.

The North Haven office serves educational, healthcare, commercial and institutional clients throughout Connecticut including Yale University, Choate Rosemary Hall and the University of Connecticut.

Shawmut Design and Construction is a national construction management firm that builds exciting projects for distinguished clients. As an ESOP (employee-owned) company, Shawmut's main objective is delivering exceptional, personalized service to clients. Project teams take the time to truly listen to clients' goals and concerns while implementing comprehensive tools and services. Shawmut's unique business model allows project teams to better service clients by focusing their specialized expertise within one of the following areas: academic, commercial, corporate interiors, cultural and historic, gaming, healthcare and science, hotels, restaurants, retail, and spas and health clubs. Shawmut has offices located in Boston, New York, Providence, North Haven, and Las Vegas.
