Day joins Roche Realty Group's Laconia office

July 03, 2014 - Northern New England

According to Frank Roche, president of Roche Realty Group, Inc. with offices in Meredith and Laconia, Christina Day has joined the Laconia office located on Parade Rd. (Rte. 106N). During the past ten years, Day has worked at the Bank of N.H., formerly Laconia Savings Bank, where she held the position of senior bank service representative IV and was backup to the bank branch manager.

Roche said, "Christina has gained valuable quality service and customer service skills while working at the Bank of N.H. One of her passions is always trying to help people. She has a tremendous attention to detail, has a great knowledge of the area and has very strong communication and follow-up skills as well as a strong technology background. While at the bank over ten years she assisted thousands of customers in making financial decisions that would best suit their needs."

Day obtained her real estate license in 2004 and began working for Ganong Real Estate part time, while remaining a full-time employee at the bank. She sold over $2 million in properties within her first year of selling real estate part-time.
