MBREA offers 80th anniversary limited time special for joining

July 10, 2014 - Appraisal & Consulting

Would you like to pay MBREA member prices for your education? Then take advantage of our 80th anniversary offer of $80 off your first year's dues.

MBREA is expanding our celebration with a limited time offer for you to join the professional appraisal association that has been the leading source of education, information and standards for real property valuation professionals for eight decades

As licensed professionals we are obligated to ourselves and to our clients to be informed and up to date about our profession. You can't do that without being part of a well-run professional organization. The question really is...Why wouldn't you want to be a member?

What's in it for you? Bob Ryan, an appraiser from Rhode Island, listed five reasons for why he belongs to MBREA. We are confident, that once you try membership you will find value in all these areas:

1. Excellent professional education opportunities
2. Timely information on pending changes to regulations
3. Networking opportunities
4. Help in finding information and data by using the Appraisal Open Forum
5. Better value for dues than other organizations

The offer: join the MBREA for one year at a reduced price of $195. This is an $80 savings. It's easy to join.
