08-08-2014 - RIBA's 64th annual clambake

July 10, 2014 - Rhode Island

RIBA's biggest social event of the year is just around the corner: The 64th annual clambake!

This year, the clambake will be held at 27 Francis Farm Rd. on August 8th, from noon to 8 p.m. The cost is $35 per person for the first 300 people and $70 per person after that. The deadline to register is August 1st.

With one of the lowest ticket prices in years, fabulous food and drink, a great venue and new features, they expect well over 400 people to attend. This event, which has taken place every year since 1950, has grown into a major industry happening. So now's the time to reserve your tickets. Each ticket includes all the food you can eat, along with two free beers.

Make 2014 the year that your company makes the RIBA clambake your annual outing, as many companies do. As a new feature this year, major sponsors will have exhibits set up to showcase their latest products and services. This began last year with only a few booths and has proven very popular with attendees.

Sponsorships

The low ticket price is possible because every penny from sponsorships goes directly to event costs. The more companies that come forward to sponsor the event, the lower the ticket price will get, so please consider a sponsorship. Contact Elizabeth Carpenter at the RIBA office, ecarpenter@ribuilders.org for more information about sponsorships for the clambake or any other RIBA event.

Sponsors will be recognized at the venue and in The Rhode Island Builder Report's clambake issue in September.

As always, great food will be featured throughout the day. There will be clamcakes and chowder (both red and white), hot dogs, and little necks on the half shell. Later in the day, there will be a traditional clambake. See you there!
