Skanska USA participates in 20th consecutive J.P. Morgan Corporate Challenge road race

July 17, 2014 - Front Section

On Tuesday, June 24, employees from local construction and development firm Skanska USA gathered after work at the Boston Common to participate in the 20th consecutive J.P. Morgan Corporate Challenge road race.

The company consistently promotes physical activity and exercise amongst its employees. For example, Skanska performs Stretch and Flex, a daily routine Skanska practices to physically prepare for a safe workday, each morning on all of its jobsites and inside all of its offices around the country.
