ASM's next member meeting - May 1st

April 09, 2008 - Front Section

For ASM's next member meeting on May 1st, the new Technology Committee is organizing a presentation and display on new technology tools that offer potential for construction businesses - and may soon be essential.

For companies with satellite offices, some of these tools are a must. Join us 4 to 6 p.m. at the Westin Hotel. Register at www.associatedsubs.com.
