Wagner joins NAI Norwood Group Portsmouth team

August 01, 2014 - Northern New England

PORTSMOUTH, NH NAI Norwood Group has welcomed Bill Wagner to the Portsmouth team. Wagner intends to use his expertise to help NAI Norwood Group clients reach their real estate goals, by leveraging his 35 years of business ownership and consulting experience in real estate development in N.H. Wagner has developed a reputation for integrity, reliability, with a desire to accomplish goals for the client by providing professional guidance and advice through a high level of knowledge in the field.

Wagner has experience in the real estate development process-from basic issues to the complex ideas and execution of plans, including the permitting process. He has real estate experience as a tenant, property owner, public servant, and has participated in the permitting and building of two office buildings at Pease International Tradeport and various other projects in the Seacoast area.

Wagner's community involvement includes: past president of Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce, past president of Seacoast Mental Health Center, past member of the Pease Development Authority, and seven term city councilor of the city of Portsmouth (2 terms as assistant mayor).
