Saletin Real Estate Group leases 4,000 s/f at 40 Sharpe Drive

August 07, 2014 - Rhode Island

Saletin Real Estate Group has leased 4,000 s/f at 40 Sharpe Dr. to Rhode Island Society of Certified Public Accountants (RISCPA). The 30,000 s/f office building is also home to two Fortune 500 companies, the worldwide technology company, Siemens, and Concentra, a subsidiary of Humana, Inc.

"We are very pleased that the RISCPA has chosen 40 Sharpe Dr. in Howard Industrial Park for their association's new Rhode Island headquarters. They are a great fit with the other professionals in the building and we are confident their members will make great use of both the building and large parking lot," said Jeffrey Saletin, president of Saletin Real Estate Group, the property management firm and sole broker in conjunction with the lease. RISCPA, previously located in Providence, sponsors numerous courses and events for its membership throughout the year.

"Following a rather robust search for our new office building, we happily discovered Saletin Real Estate Group and principal, Jeff Saletin who, based on a solid inventory of properties, introduced my team to several buildings suitable to our needs," said Robert Mancini, RISCPA executive director.

"I am happy to report that our final selection fits the bill perfectly in terms of location, amenities and, of course, ample parking," Mancini said.

RISCPA officially opened its Cranston office on July 14.
