September 11, 2014 - Front Section

A new 125-room Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott broke ground recently. Located at 867 Hyannough Rd. (Rte. 132), the Fairfield Inn & Suites Hyannis is scheduled to open in May 2015 and will operate as a Marriott franchise, owned and managed by Konover Hotel Corp. of West Hartford, Conn.

Formerly a Days Inn, the existing hotel closed on August 4. The property will undergo a nine month renovation and expansion, including the addition of a 3rd story and guest elevators. Located one mile from Barnstable Municipal Airport and area beaches, the hotel offers guests convenient access to Hyannis, Cape Cod and the islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket.

The groundbreaking included congressman William Keating (D-MA9), officials from the Town of Barnstable, plus representatives of The Simon Konover Co., Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce/Convention and Visitors Bureau, and the Hyannis Area Chamber of Commerce.

James Wakim, president and COO of The Simon Konover Co. acknowledged the warm reception of the Cape Cod community, saying, "It is a privilege to be here in this historic region and to work with all of you to bring the Fairfield Inn & Suites brand to Hyannis."
