Rowell joins Cityside PM as property manager

October 02, 2014 - Owners Developers & Managers

Cityside PM welcomes Rachel Rowell as a new property manager to oversee maintenance and other property management services for multiple condominium properties in New Hampshire. Rowell formerly held a similar position at Harvard Management and has the certification of Association Management Specialist (AMS) from Community Associations Institute. Rowell is also a Certified Manager of Community Associations (CMCA).

Cityside PM vice president Mike Martinez said, "Rachel is among the elite professionals in property management having earned multiple certifications and almost a decade of experience in our industry. Rarely do you find someone so enthusiastic about work and committed to the clients who depend on our services."

Rowell is a New Hampshire native and lives in Manchester.

Cityside PM is a division of Cityside Management Corp., a single-source real estate portfolio management services provider.
