Erland Construction wins two national safety awards

October 21, 2014 - Connecticut

Erland Construction has won two national awards for its safety record. These honors include the 2014 Safety Training and Evaluation Process Platinum-level award from the Associated Builders & Contractors and the National Safety Award from AGC of Massachusetts.

Both distinctions recognize Erland's superior safety standards and commitment to ensuring a high-level of safety for both workers and pedestrians on and around all of its active construction sites. The company's comprehensive safety program is based on the continuous education of all of its employees, with jobsite safety as a top priority at all levels of the organization.

Associated Builders & Contractors is a construction industry trade association with 70 chapters and nearly 21,000 chapter members around the U.S.
