The Changing Nature of Retail

October 28

Location: Stamford Marriott, 243 Tresser Blvd.

Time: 11:45 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

As Fairfield County becomes a destination for more and more upwardly mobile renters and the Internet becomes an ever greater source of retail sales, the bricks and mortar aspects of retail real estate continue to shift.

This month REFA is hosting Andy Pforzheimer, founder of the Barcelona Restaurant chain; Kirsten Oswald, vice president of Real Estate for Vineyard Vines; Penny Wickey of Saugatuck Commercial Real Estate; and Adam Ifshin, president and CEO of DLC Management Corp., who will discuss the various ways that their firms are responding to the changing nature of retailing.
