NAI The Dunham Group negotiates 65,000 s/f lease for Disability RMS

November 06, 2014 - Northern New England

NAI The Dunham Group negotiated a 65,000 s/f lease for Disability RMS at 300 Southborough Dr. For the last 10 years, Disability RMS has operated out of their location in Westbrook. Part of their new lease included a substantial tenant improvement allowance that Disability RMS will use to complete a class A office build-out for their specific needs. In January 2016, the company will join other big office users such as United Healthcare and Mortgage Network at this office property.

Disability RMS is a leading provider of turnkey disability risk management products and services. Established in 1993, they offer actuarial, underwriting and claims industry expertise in risk management. They serve their clients as strategic partners, valuing their long-standing customers and are committed to the development of new relationships.

"We are excited to begin the build-out of our new space, and look forward to our upcoming move," said Matt Gilligan, president of Disability RMS.
