VERC Enterprises honored by Energi Insurance Services Inc.

November 13, 2014 - Front Section

Gas station and convenience store retailer VERC Enterprises received the 2014 Excellence in Risk Management Award from Energi Insurance Services Inc. for its commitment to loss prevention and safety.

Accepting the award at the 2014 Risk Management & Insurance Summit in San Antonio was Barry Ahern, director of operations at VERC. This marks the second consecutive year VERC Enterprises has received the honor.

The summit featured keynote address speaker President George W. Bush.

"It was an honor to once again receive the Risk Management award from such a prominent company and to have the opportunity to attend this prestigious summit," said Leo Vercollone, president of VERC Enterprises.

Energi is a Peabody, Mass.-based industrial reinsurance company that provides specialized insurance and risk management products to targeted market segments of the North American energy industry.

The theme of the 2014 summit was "Pioneering the North American Energy Industry."
