Minnerly and Osvold of NAI Hunneman completes $1.5 million sale of 21,000 s/f 560 Turnpike Street

November 28, 2014 - Front Section

NAI Hunneman recently completed the $2.1 million sale of 560 Turnpike St. to Automated Solutions. The purchase will serve as expansion space for the building specialties company that furnishes and installs a wide variety of architectural interior finish products. NAI Hunneman executive vice president Cathy Minnerly along with associate Ovar Osvold represented the seller BNE Real Estate Partners along with procuring the buyer.

"560 Turnpike offers Automated Solutions a strategic location with generous clear heights and ample loading that allows the company to expand its operations while consolidating two locations under one roof," said Minnerly.

Consisting of 11,900 s/f of warehouse/flex space along with 9,100 s/f of office space, 11 Brooks Dr. offers a location on Rte. 138 and in close proximity to I- 93 & 95 offering convenient access to Boston and Providence.
