Varholak, Friedman, Lashar and Keenan of Transwestern | RBJ assists Commonwealth Partners in 226,000 s/f in leases at Wellesley Gateway

December 04, 2014 - Front Section

Transwestern | RBJ assisted Commonwealth Partners with the anchor lease totaling 126,000 s/f and executed two additional leases on their behalf totaling 100,000 s/f at Wellesley Gateway. Transwestern | RBJ's Jon Varholak, Ron Friedman and John Lashar, partners, along with Vicki Keenan, senior vice president, represented building ownership in the transactions.

Harvard Pilgrim Health Care Inc. renewed its lease for 126,000 s/f on multiple floors in the building. The not-for-profit health services company was represented by McCall & Almy Inc.

Partners HealthCare signed a direct lease for 80,000 s/f, after having previously subleased space in the building. McCall & Almy represented the tenant, an integrated health care system founded by Brigham and Women's Hospital and Massachusetts General Hospital.

GW & Wade LLC, an independent, fee-based financial advisory firm, signed a direct lease for 20,000 s/f after having previously subleased space in the building. The firm was represented by Cassidy Turley.

"Securing long-term leases with companies of such high caliber is a testament to the quality of Wellesley Gateway," said Friedman. "The building's quality of construction and first-class amenities coupled with its superior location at the intersection of Routes 9 and 128 are truly unique to the marketplace."

Wellesley Gateway, located at 93 Worcester St., is the premier office building in the Rte. 128 West submarket, 10 miles west of Boston. Constructed in 2000 and designed by Elkus Manfredi, the 272,550 s/f office building boasts unique architectural features while maintaining a traditional New England look and feel on a 16 acre park-like setting. The project features on-site amenities including a cafeteria, structured parking, sundry shop and a full-service fitness center along with prominent highway visibility.
