Gregory joins JLL as an associate in Boston

December 12, 2014 - Front Section

JLL's Capital Markets has hired George Gregory as an associate working under the direction of managing director Frank Petz, Gregory will focus on underwriting and analysis across all property types, performing valuations and other market studies.

Previously Gregory was an account and project manager for six years at Triumvirate Environmental, Inc. There he specialized in the sale of environmental services to the life sciences industry throughout New England.

"We continue to grow market share and add top talent to our deep team," said Petz. "George is a great addition to our Capital Markets platform bringing a combination of sales, lab, and environmental expertise to the team."

Gregory earned an M.B.A. degree in Finance from Boston University and his B.A. from Bates College.

He is a member of the Real Estate Finance Association (REFA). George resides in Boston with wife Katherine.

George's addition now brings our Capital Markets team up to 15 professionals – all focused on adding value for our clients.
