Crowninshield Management awarded Accredited Management Organization of the Year by Boston IREM chapter

March 05, 2015 - Owners Developers & Managers

Crowninshield Management Corp. has been named Accredited Management Organization of the Year by Boston Metropolitan Chapter 4 of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM). The award was presented at Boston Metropolitan Chapter 4 of the IREM's Awards Night held at the John F. Kennedy Library.

"We chose Crowninshield Management Corporation because they have a long commitment to excellence in the real estate management industry. The executives of the company have the certified property management designation, the highest designation provided by the Institute of Real Estate Management," said David Barrett, Boston Metropolitan Chapter 4 of IREM president 2014.

"It is truly an honor to be recognized by the Institute of Real Estate Management. Our team works tirelessly year-round to deliver excellence and are proud to be recognized," said Nick Ruccolo CPM, vice president of Crowninshield, who accepted the award.
