ASM's Young Professionals turn out to support the Green Team

March 19, 2015 - Construction Design & Engineering

On Wednesday, March 11, ASM's Young Professionals Group hit the TD Garden to watch the Boston Celtics take on the powerful Memphis Grizzlies and make a run at a playoff spot.

From a skybox suite high above the parquet, they watched the action while enjoying the company of friends and building their business networks. And to put a bowtie on the evening, the Celtics upset the Grizzlies in a tight affair, making the team and ASM's Young Professionals winners!
